

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

I want to add my voice to the many which I am sure you have received regarding this arrogant display of the power of money over the power of commitment to providing balanced news.

This is disgusting and worrying. If some curbs on this behavior are not devised, we will descend into the same kind of news coverage which Russia experienced under Stalin.

What is your move?
